

Rocky loves to workout and has been active his whole life. He loves to run and keep his diet in check.

When Rocky gets to the University of South Carolina, he can not find any healthy places to eat at and eats what he can find.

Rocky finds the Nutrition app and is able to find what he wants to eat and where it is on campus.

Rocky eats healthy the majority of the time now that he has the nutrition app.

Rocky brings friends to come and eat with him and introduces them to the app as well.

With the nutritional needs having been met, Rocky sees positive results in other areas in his life.
